CLEVELAND, OHIO
THE OLD STONE CHURCH ON PUBLIC SQUARE

First Presbyterian Society in Cleveland. One of America's most widely known churches. Organized in 1820 at which time the population of Cleveland was 150 persons. The present church, dedicated in 1858, is the third structure on this location. Daily carillon and organ recitals.

Photograph by Mike Dobkowski

dynacolor graphics, inc
MIAMI, FLORIDA

Distributed by ©Wilbur Evans Company, 1465 Chester Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44114

PLACE
POST CARD
POSTAGE
HERE

P28533

Post Card